

ESCAPE FROM THE JUNGLE

(This is a true story.)

On Christmas Eve 1971 Juliana Koepke, a seventeen-year-old German girl, Lima by air with her mother. They on their way to Pucallpa, another town in Peru, to spend Christmas with Juliana's father. Forty-five minutes later the plane up in a storm, and Juliana 3,000 metres, strapped in her seat. She was not killed when the seat the ground (perhaps because trees broke her fall), but she all night unconscious.

The next morning Juliana for pieces of the plane, and for her mother. Nobody answered, and she nothing except a small plastic bag of sweets.

Juliana's collar bone was broken, one knee was badly hurt and she had deep cuts on her arms and legs. She had no shoes; her glasses were broken (so she could not snakes or spiders, for example); and she was wearing only a very short dress, which was badly torn. But she decided to try to out of the jungle, because she that if she stayed there she would die.

So Juliana to walk. She did not anything to eat, and as the days went by she got weaker and weaker. She was also in bad trouble from insect bites. She helicopters, but could not see them above the trees, and of course they could not see her. One day she three seats and that they had dead bodies in them, but she did not recognise the people.

After four days she to a river. She saw caimans and piranhas, but she that they do not usually attack people. So Juliana walked and down the river for another five days. At last she to a hut. Nobody was there, but the next afternoon, four men arrived. They her to a doctor in the next village.

Juliana afterwards that there were at least three other people who were not killed in the crash. But she was the only one who out of the jungle. It took her ten days.
